

Invites you to
Humor and Hearing Loss
Featuring Liz Olson

Date: Saturday, 24 January 2026

Time: 2:00 pm

Place: Duxbury Free Library
77 Alden St, Duxbury, MA

Liz understands the unique struggles and emotions involved with hearing loss first hand; she is witness to the power of laughter and humor as a tool for coping with stress and adversity. As a compassionate and experienced licensed clinical social worker, Liz brings both professional expertise and her own lived experience to explore the power of humor and healing in relation to hearing loss and hopes for an engaging time of sharing with all of you.

This meeting will be captioned.

For those unable to attend in person, this meeting is hybrid so you can still participate virtually. A Zoom link will be sent to those who request it. Contact: hearinglosssemass@gmail.com
